The house of Burgundy PATRIARCHE has been selling top wines for over two centuries. The name of Patriarche Père et Fils is a byword for tradition, a sure sign of quality and expertise. It goes back to Jean-Baptiste Patriarche, who founded the firm in 1780. Wines sold under this label are purchased by Patriarche from winegrowers and then aged in our cellars in Beaune. Patriarche then bottles the wine and sells it all over the world. The wines of Patriarche Père et Fils are the perfect illustration of our art and expertise as traditional shippers.

Patriarche Père et Fils has been located in the former 17th century Couvent des Visitandines (Visitation Convent) since...
