

Noémie Vernaux

Since she was a child Noémie Vernaux had a passion for wine-growing and founded in 1851 the Wine Company that today still bears her name.

Dedicated to the traditions of her ancestors, she consecrated her entire life to deepening the Burgundy wine-making knowledge and savoir-faire that were her heritage.

Adventurous and enterprising, she pursued that centuries-old exporting tradition of the « Wine Trail » opened up by the Burgundy wine merchants.

Noémie Vernaux's spirit is still alive and her name is now a symbol of quality and reliability.

Tradition ... and Passion of a world-minded Lady.
